Dear Mark,

Working with your company has far exceeded our expectations. We recently completed another project with another builder that was over-budget and late. After that experience, we were quite cautious.

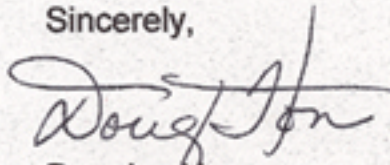

However, your company's performance has given us renewed confidence in the construction industry. To come in on-budget and to have the things finished in a timely way was very important to us.

I appreciate, too, the way you so strongly represented the interest of New Covenant Church with the City of Hazelwood and the various contractors.

Last of all, as a busy pastor, I was grateful for your constant accessibility.

We love our new building and we hope your other projects go as smoothly as this one.

Sincerely,

Douglas Hon
